

From: Kay Kinneavy <kay@labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org>
Date: November 4, 2010 1:27:47 AM CDT
To: LNN Announcements <announcements@labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org>
Subject: Labyrinth Opportunities

World Labyrinth Day Festival Needs Volunteers for Planning Team

LNN and Labyrinth Alliance Balances You (LABY)--Marylhurst University campus group--are beginning to dream about the 2nd Annual World Labyrinth Day Festival on Saturday, May 7, 2010 at Marylhurst University. We had a GREAT time last year with FUN events for all ages. We want to make this year's Festival even better. And we need your creative ideas! Please help by joining the WLDF Planning Team. Last year we were able to have almost all of our meetings by phone conferences, making it easy to participate.

We can't do it without YOU! Please email Eunice Schroeder at Eunice@SacredJourneyMinistries.com if you would like to be part of this amazing TEAM! More news will be coming . . .

Memories of last year's World Labyrinth Day. Lots of photos on LNN's Photo Page: <http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/photopages/2010/100501kayandgerry/index.html>

New Additions to the LNN Resources Page

Betsy Sayre, a woman of many talents!

LNN member Betsy Sayre was one of the quilters who helped make the Labyrinth Quilt which is being raffled off by The Labyrinth Society. This was not an easy job. I know! I freaked out when I saw the directions, so Betsy did my square as well as her own. For this I will be eternally grateful. Buy a ticket for only $5. You could win this beautiful quilt. Pay now by check or credit card. Details and a picture of the quilt on the LNN Resources Page: http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/resources/2010/101026_TLS_Quilt.pdf

Interesting article with beautiful pictures of a sunny place: "The Healing Garden" in Phoenix http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/resources/2009/091201_cave_creek.pdf

Have you heard about the amazing 2 day labyrinth walk in Ashland? It's an annual event with hundreds of participants.. a sacred walk to the New Year.... Flier with link to their website on the LNN Resources Page: http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/resources/2011/110101_sacred_walk.pdf

Prison Labyrinth Volunteers Needed

LNN members are now in the process of getting background checks so that they will be able to volunteer at Coffee Creek Correctional Facility... Oregon's Women's Prison. We're organizing a team of volunteers so that each person will only need to work once a month so that the women at Coffee Creek can walk the labyrinth weekly. This is the only quiet time for these women who live in a noisy prison environment.

If you'd like to join the LNN Prison Labyrinth Team write to Kay@Labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org for more info.

Christiana had a great interview with Helen Curry talking about her many years experience with Prison Labyrinth Ministry on Blog Talk Radio, Oct. 18. You can listen on your computer or download the Podcast : <http://www.blogtalkradio.com/christianabtr>

The Holiday Season is a very popular time for labyrinth walks. Several special events are already on the LNN Calendar. Have you listed your events yet? <http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/calendar.html>

You're invited to labyrinth walks at Portland State University
Nov. 9 & Dec. 7, 2010

Monthly labyrinth walks at Portland State University are sponsored by PSU's Spiritual Life Center and the student group Growing Roots. These walks are free and open to the public, so anyone in Portland is welcome to come. If you need more information or have any questions, please contact caroljoy@pdx.edu, 503-348-2182.

Kay Kinneavy
Labyrinth Network Northwest

PO Box 722
Neskowin, OR 97149-0722
kay@labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org
<http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/>