Dear Friends,

If you're looking for something interesting to do to celebrate Valentine's Day, I suggest you drive to Oregon's South Coast where Denny Dyke will be making labyrinths on the beach at Bandon.

Denny is a master of labyrinth making, and he enjoys sharing his artistic creations with everyone. It's the first of his series of "Circles in the Sand". Directions and details are on the LNN Calendar Page.

If you can't come, you can read about it and see pictures of Denny's most recent creation
