Dear Labyrinth Friends,

It's been 4 years since the last Northwest Regional Labyrinth Gathering, and 5 years since the one in Portland. It's past time for us to get together again. We have a lot to talk about!

I'm really excited to be able to give you some details of the wonderful plans we have for this year's labyrinth gathering. Our featured speaker will be Dr. Jill Geoffrion who has been working with labyrinths around the world. Jill has some very interesting stories to share. Jill's a professional photographer, and all of her presentations will be filled with beautiful pictures. What an amazing experience it will be to spend a whole weekend with Jill Geoffrion.

The LNN Home Page now features picture of Jill with a group of children on a labyrinth in Africa.

There's always something happening around labyrinths in the Northwest.
This week offers some interesting and unusual opportunities.

Saturday, April 2, Jodi Lorimer will be doing a book presentation at Spirit Feathers in Portland:

Come learn what the people really did in the painted caves of France, and why this was the beginning of the healing labyrinth. Jodi Lorimer will present a beautiful keynote presentation of stunning and sophisticated cave art, explain how and why it was made and the spiritual purpose behind it.

Saturday, April 2 is also an opportunity to Walk the Lenten Labyrinth at the Franciscan Center This is a Labyrinth Prayer Retreat marking the mid-point of Lent.
