

From: Kay Kinneavy <Kay@Kinneavy.com>
Date: April 16, 2011 10:26:19 AM CDT
To: LNN Announcements <announcements@labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org>
Subject: LNN Labyrinth News - Spring

Rainy Day Labyrinth Activities

Don't let the rain stop you from labyrinth walking. If you're not into umbrellas, we have several indoor labyrinths available, and several of them have events this week. Check the LNN Calendar frequently. There are always many interesting opportunities available.

<http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/calendar.html>

Need more help finding a labyrinth? A list of permanent labyrinths in Northern Oregon is available on LNN.

http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/resources/Permanent_Labyrinths_Northern_Oregon.pdf

Paul Bingman Memorial Labyrinth Walk at Trinity

Trinity Cathedral Labyrinth Guild was saddened by the death of their friend Paul Bingman who was a regular volunteer at their events. This Monday Trinity's monthly walk will be dedicated to Paul. Come and walk the labyrinth to honor Paul Bingham. Monday, April 18 -- 4:00 PM - 8:00 PM. at Trinity Episcopal Cathedral, Portland.

Spring Edition of LNN's Labyrinth News is now available

Read about a new labyrinth in Seattle and a new permanent labyrinth being built in Portland. This spring edition of labyrinth news features artist Ansula Press creator of the Genesa Labyrinth and Christine Merritt, our NW regional representative for Veriditas. There is also news about important upcoming labyrinth events.

http://www.labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org/newsletters/2011/LNN_Newsletter_Spring2011.pdf