World Labyrinth Day 2012 - St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Gresham

Labyrinth 10th Birthday Celebration

It doesn't seem possible, but it's been 10 years since the installation of the labyrinth at St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Gresham.

Hundreds of people have walked this labyrinth during those 10 years. It's a beautiful place to go for meditation and prayer.

Kids enjoy different and joyful ways of using this labyrinth.

Come and see how the St. Luke's Labyrinth has evolved over the years. The labyrinth garden has really grown!

LNN Fall Labyrinth Pilgrimage

Saturday, September 17, 2016
1:00 PM

Please join us for a labyrinth walk on this beautiful private garden labyrinth

A Labyrinth Walk Preparing for Fall

LNN has planned a garden walk to ease the transition of saying good-bye to summer and hello to fall.

This labyrinth, located in Portland's West Hills, is a beautiful classic design created with plants.

Take a moment out of your schedule and come walk with us. There will be time to journal and socialize with other labyrinth aficionados.

The event is free, but donations will be accepted to help fund the LNN website.

To register and obtain further information, email

jamie@labyrinthnetworknorthwest.org

Because this is a private residence, the street address for the labyrinth will be sent to you after you register.

Website challenges

Due to circumstances beyond our control, some changes were made to our LNN website which caused all of our forms to stop sending us the data that was submitted. We're still working on this problem. Hopefully it will be resolved soon. If you didn't receive a proper response to something, please tell me. Weird things keep happening, and the sooner we know about it, the better opportunity to fix it.

please send me all info about your event via e-mail and attach any fliers photos, etc. related to this event
