Dear LNN Friends,

I'm excited because Denny Dyke is coming to Portland. My friend Denny is known around the world for the beautiful labyrinths he creates on the beaches in Bandon, Oregon. Denny was a featured speaker at the international labyrinth gathering in Bainbridge Island, Washington last fall. He's also a really nice man, and a delightful person to talk with. I hope you'll take advantage of this opportunity to meet Denny Dyke.

If you haven't had a chance to go to Bandon to see Denny in action, you should come to see his presentation next Tuesday at Cerimon House in Portland. He'll be talking about his labyrinth experiences and showing pictures of his work.

Denny's talk is being sponsored by The Liminal Space Society, a brand new organization. Hope to see you there.

Love,
Kay

LNN e-mail ???

Our LNN e-mail addresses recently stopped working. Our website host recently changed owners, and this has caused some complications for LNN. So, please contact me if you have important information for LNN. Don't worry. We're working on the problems and we should be back to normal soon.

In the meantime, you can e-mail us at

Holy Week Events ??

Are you planning a labyrinth event for Holy Week? If so, please let me know. I'd like to participate if I can, and I know other people would be interested as well. So, if you could submit the info for the LNN Calendar to the address above, we will add it to the LNN Calendar.
