

World Labyrinth Day
Saturday, May 5, 2018

Gerry is preparing for World Labyrinth Day using his finger labyrinth.

How will you celebrate?
Do it your way and send us a picture!

- Walk as one at one with people around the world
- Participate in a World Labyrinth Day event
- See LNN Calendar for a list of events in the Pacific Northwest

You're invited to join some LNN people for the Labyrinth Event at St. Luke's Episcopal Church in Gresham and join us after the walk for a chance to get acquainted with some labyrinth enthusiasts and discussion about labyrinths and possibilities for future labyrinth events.

- Labyrinth Walk at 1:00 PM.
- Meeting begins at 2:30 PM

If you can't participate in one of these events, celebrate on your own: Draw a labyrinth, use a finger labyrinth, weed your garden labyrinth, use a virtual labyrinth, be creative! Do something with a labyrinth.... AND send us a picture!
